1 Conditions for restarting your insurance cover

This form is for members whose insurance cover stopped because their Super Savings – Corporate Accumulation account for Former CBA Group Super Plan did not receive an 'eligible contribution'<sup>1</sup> over a 12 month period. If your insurance cover stopped for any other reason, then you cannot restart your cover using this form. To restart the insurance cover you held immediately prior to your cover stopping, this form must be received by Australian Retirement Trust within 60 days of the date your insurance cover ceased. If accepted, your cover will be reinstated and backdated to the effective date that it stopped. If received after 60 days or you have a zero balance account, then you will have to re-apply for insurance. Any application for insurance cover is subject to acceptance by the insurer. Satisfactory evidence of health may be required. If received after 60 days or you have a zero balance account, then you will have to re-apply for insurance. Any application for insurance cover is subject to acceptance by the insurer. Satisfactory evidence of health may be required.

You should be aware that:

- You will not be able to make a claim for the period between when your cover stopped and when it restarted.
- Please refer to your Super Savings – Corporate Insurance Guide Former CBA Group Super Plan available at art.com.au/cbasp for more information and any additional conditions that may apply.

<sup>1</sup> 'Eligible contributions' include superannuation guarantee (SG), additional 'eligible contributions', personal contributions (including voluntary contributions and contributions made by a spouse), rollovers and automatic transfers from other funds. They do not include government co-contributions or the low income super tax offset.
