The Trustee shall act on such a direction PROVIDED THAT the Principal Employer shall obtain the approval of the Trustee if such approval is required by Superannuation Law PROVIDED FURTHER THAT if and to the extent that, in the opinion of the Trustee (after obtaining the advice of the Actuary), to act on such a direction would cause a deficiency in the Plan, before acting on such a direction or in the course of doing so the Trustee may require an undertaking from an Employer that it shall contribute to the Plan such additional amounts or rates of contribution and at such times as the Trustee shall determine after obtaining the advice of the Actuary. If any undertaking required by the Trustee as aforesaid is not given or, having been given, is not fulfilled to the satisfaction of the Trustee, the Trustee may refuse to pay or provide (or to continue to pay or provide) the greater benefit or amount to which the undertaking relates.

The Principal Employer shall advise the Trustee in writing of such a determination which shall be binding on the Member concerned and all other interested parties without the need to formally amend the Plan Rules PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT this clause shall not operate so as to detrimentally affect benefits secured to a Member by contributions made by the Member and by the Employer in respect of him or to reduce any benefits that have accrued to any Member or affect the basis of calculating the amount of retirement benefits of any Member in a way that reduces that amount with respect to the period of membership before the date of the Principal Employer's written advice to the Trustee of such a determination.

8.4 Benefit adjustments

- (a) The Principal Employer and the Trustee may, with the consent of the Member agree to vary the form and/or increase or reduce the amount of any benefit payment to which that Member is, or may become, entitled in accordance with the Plan Rules. Receipt of the Member's written consent to the altered form and/or amount of the benefit payment shall constitute a satisfactory discharge to the Trustee.
- (b) If a Member is not required to contribute to the Plan in accordance with clause 7.2(f) for a period, the Trustee may adjust the amount of any benefit payable in respect of the Member to take into account the period during which contributions in respect of the Member were suspended. - (c) Subject to the other provisions of the Plan Rules, but notwithstanding clause 7.5(e) of this deed, an Employer shall contribute to the Scheme such amounts, if any, as are advised by the Actuary as being required to fund the minimum benefits to be provided to Members pursuant to this clause 8.5 should they exceed or increase the actuarial reserves of the Members.

- (c) The Trustee and the Principal Employer may release an Employer and its Employees who are Members of the Plan from participation in the Plan as from a date and on such terms and conditions as agreed between the Trustee and the Principal Employer and thereupon the interest in the Plan of such Employer and its employees who are Members shall be ascertained by the Trustee acting on the advice of an Actuary and dealt with in such manner as agreed between the Trustee and the Principal Employer PROVIDED THAT the rights of those Members to whom this clause 9.1(c) applies shall not be prejudicially varied or affected without their consent, having regard to Superannuation Law. However, a payment to any person under this clause 9.1(c) must comply with Family Law and clause 4 of the Benefit Deed.

However, a payment under this clause 10.1(c)(ii) must comply with Family Law and clause 4 of the Benefit Deed;
 - (ii) the Trustee may, with the consent of the Principal Employer (which will not be unreasonably withheld), make arrangements for the payment of the entitlements of a Plan Beneficiary under clause 10.1(c)(ii) as the Trustee considers appropriate, including:
