Providing your Tax File Number (TFN)

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, your superannuation fund is authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. The trustee of your superannuation fund may disclose your TFN to another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request the trustee of your Superannuation fund in writing that your TFN is not to be disclosed to any other superannuation provider. However giving your TFN to your superannuation fund will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- Your superannuation fund will be able to accept all types of contributions to your account/s.
- The tax on contributions to your superannuation account/s will not increase.
- Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits; and
- It will make it much easier to trace different superannuation accounts in your name so that you'll receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire.

What if I don't claim within six months?

If you do not claim your super within six months of leaving Australia, or within six months of the cancellation or expiry of your visa if later, the ATO will instruct us to transfer your balance to the ATO. If this occurs, you should claim your super money from the ATO. As Australian Retirement Trust adopts the ASIC class order relief that provides disclosure exemption for former temporary residents, information regarding the transfer of a member's benefits and significant event notices may not be provided to a member whose benefit has been transferred. If you are applying to the ATO to claim your benefit and require information about the transfer, please contact us. For more information on accessing your benefit when you leave Australia, please call the ATO superannuation line on 13 10 20 (within Australia) or email DASPmail@ato.gov.au (outside Australia).

Warning – illegal early release schemes Superannuation scams or early release schemes which offer to give you early access to your superannuation, often through a self-managed super fund and/or for a fee, are illegal. You cannot legally have access to the 'preserved' part of your super until you reach your 'preservation' age (ranging from 55 to 60 years of age, depending on when you were born) or meet a condition of release, such as compassionate grounds. If you do access your super early for an illegal reason, you may be subject to legal action and heavy penalties (including tax). If you receive one of these offers or want independent advice, please contact us or the ATO and report that you have been approached by an early release scheme.
