Direct Debit Request information

Direct Debit Request

Personal contributions

You may make personal contributions to your Australian Retirement Trust account if:

- you've supplied your tax file number (TFN) to Australian Retirement Trust, and
- you're below 75 year of age.

Australian Retirement Trust is generally unable to accept personal contributions if you're aged 75 years or older. If you're aged 75 years or over, you're not eligible to make voluntary contributions to your superannuation account unless the contribution is made within 28 days after the end of the month you turned 75 years.

Any personal contributions received which don't meet the above requirements will be refunded by Australian Retirement Trust. If your circumstances change and you no longer meet the above requirements please advise Australian Retirement Trust in writing to stop your direct debit or contributions will continue to be

Please note: you are not eligible to make nonconcessional (after tax) contributions if your total superannuation balance equals or exceeds $1,900,000.

Tax file number (TFN) details

We can't accept voluntary contributions without a tax file number (TFN). If you have not previously provided us with your TFN and wish to supply this please update via Member Online or by completing the Tax File Number notification form on our website. To protect your privacy, please do not write your TFN on this

Co-contribution

You may be entitled to a government co-contribution if:

- you made voluntary after-tax contributions to a complying super fund or a retirement savings account during the financial year
- your total income¹ was less than $60,400 for the 2024-25 financial year
- you're under 71 years old at the end of the financial
- · you lodged an income tax return for the financial
- you've not held a temporary resident visa at any time during the financial year, and
- you earned 10 per cent or more of your total income from running a business if you're self-employed, or from eligible employment², or a combination of both.

The maximum government co-contribution is $500 for 2024-25. For more information, visit art.com.au/ co-contributions

You will not be eligible for co-contributions if:

- your non-concessional contributions exceed the cap for that financial year, or
- your total superannuation balance, as at 30 June of the previous financial year, equals or exceeds $1,900,000.

For more information about Government cocontributions,

visit art.com.au/co-contributions

Any voluntary contributions you make must be preserved in your account until:

- you retire after reaching your preservation age (55 for people born prior to 1 July 1960 increasing in yearly increments to age 60 for people whose dates of birth range from 1 July 1960 to 1 July 1964)
- you've turned 60 years and stopped employment on or after turning 60 years
- · you're totally and permanently disabled
- · you're permanently incapacitated

- your death
- you reach age 65, or
- you reach your preservation age and purchase a non-commutable income stream.

You may also be able to apply to access preserved money on compassionate grounds.

Non-concessional (after-tax) contributions cap. The amount of non-concessional contributions you can make in a financial year without being subject to additional tax is capped, subject to the 'bring forward' rule explained below. The cap for the 2024-25 financial year is $120,000.

Please contact the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) on 13 10 20 or go to ato.gov.au for information about tax, penalties and what to do if you exceed your contribution caps.

Bring forward rule

If you're under age 75 in a particular financial year, you may be able to 'bring forward' two year's worth of contributions, effectively giving you a cap of $360,000

For example, provided you haven't already exercised the bring forward rule in the previous two years, you can make contributions up to a total of $360,000 over the three-year period 2022-23 - 2024-25 without exceeding your cap. Any contributions over $360,000 in that three-year period will be subject to tax at your marginal tax rate.

Note: The Federal Government may change the rules and limits detailed on this page at any time.

First Home Buyer Super Saver Scheme

Eligible contributions can also be withdrawn and used towards a first home deposit. Conditions apply, visit art.com.au/fhsss for more information.

Downsizer Contributions

If you are aged 55 or older you will be able to contribute the proceeds from selling your home as a one-off non-concessional contribution to your super, limited to $300,000 per person ($600,000 per couple). This measure applies where the contract of sale was exchanged on or after 1 July 2018, and does not include investment properties, holiday homes, caravans or other mobile homes. These contributions do not count towards the non-concessional contributions cap. For more information visit art.com.au/downsizer

Conditions of use

- If you wish to cancel or alter your direct debit, you'll need to give us 7 days notice. Cancellations can be done over the phone or in writing. Requests for alterations need to be put in writing and sent to Australian Retirement Trust.
- For regular payments, deductions are made on, or around, the 20th of each month.
- When the 20th falls on a weekend or public holiday, the deduction will be processed on the next business day.
- If the deduction is dishonoured three times, this facility will end immediately. A dishonour means the déduction couldn't be made because there isn't enough money in the nominated account or the account number provided is incorrect.
- If your total superannuation benefit is paid from Australian Retirement Trust, this deduction facility will end automatically.
- If Australian Retirement Trust is advised of a dishonour after your total superannuation benefit is paid out, you're liable to repay the dishonoured amount to Australian Retirement Trust.
- Any direct debits we receive after you turn age 75 must be returned to you. Under current Government legislation, personal contributions cannot be accepted past the age of 75.

Service agreement

1. Why an agreement? Through the Direct Debit Request (DDR) you're agreeing to allow us to debit amount(s) from your bank* account.

2. If Australian Retirement Trust wants to change this agreement:

We'll notify you at least 14 days before making any changes.

3. Changing your direct debit, or making an enquiry

Please contact us on 13 11 84 if you wish to make an enquiry, or cancel your direct debit.

- cancel or change your ongoing direct debit you need to advise us at least 7 days before the date we debit your bank account. Cancellations can be done over the phone or in writing. Changes must be requested in writing, preferably on a new Direct
- dispute a debit that has been made from your bank account please call or write to us – Australian Retirement Trust will respond to your initial dispute within 5 business days. If you're not happy with our response to your dispute, you may lodge a formal claim with your bank. Your bank guarantees to respond to your claim within 7 business days.

4. Weekends and public holidays:

We'll always try to debit your account for regular payments as per your instructions, except when the due date falls on a weekend or public holiday. In this case we'll debit your account on the next business day.

5. Make sure you have enough money in

You should make sure that you have enough cleared funds in your account for us to debit your account. If Australian Retirement Trust is advised of a dishonour after all your super benefit is paid out, you're liable to repay the dishonour amount to Australian Retirement Trust.

6. Confidentiality

We'll keep your bank account details confidential except when a court order applies, if Australian Retirement Trust's bank needs information about your account or if you give us permission to reveal your bank details.

7. Check that you give us your correct details: Before completing this form please check with your bank that:

- · your bank account accepts direct debiting (some accounts don't); and
- the account number you give us is correct (refer to your bank statement or contact your bank if necessary).
- * Note: Where we talk about "bank", this also means other financial institutions.
- ¹ Total income means your assessable income plus reportable fringe benefits plus reportable employer superannuation contributions.
- ² Eligible employment generally means anything resulting in you being treated as an employee. Amounts from eligible employment also includes some income of employees who think of themselves as being selfemployed, such as those who run their business through a company and the company pays them salary or wages.
