

Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

About your duty

When you apply for life insurance as a member of Australian Retirement Trust, the insurer may conduct a process called underwriting. It's how the insurer decides whether it will cover you, and if so on what terms and at what cost. If your application is underwritten, you will be asked questions which the insurer needs to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances and may include questions about your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you provide in response to the questions is vital to the insurer's decision.

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance which is to be underwritten, you have a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation before your application is accepted by the insurer. A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth. This duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced. Please note that there may be circumstances where the insurer later investigates whether the information you provided was true. For example, the insurer may do this when a claim is made.

Guidance for answering questions

When answering questions as part of an application for insurance cover, you should:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us or the insurer before you respond.
- Answer every question.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information or not, you should include it.
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), you should check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.
- You must not assume that Australian Retirement Trust or the insurer will contact your doctor for any medical information.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your application is accepted, the insurer may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer the questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us or the insurer know about any changes when they happen.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions that you are asked. Ask us or the insurer for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of applying for insurance or answering our or the insurer's questions. If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we are here to help and can provide additional support for anyone who might need it.

What can the insurer do if the duty is not met?

If you do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, there are different remedies that may be available to the insurer. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put the insurer in the position they would have been in if the duty had been met.

For example, the insurer may:

- avoid the cover (treat it as if it never existed);
- vary the amount of the cover; or
- vary the terms of the cover.

Whether the insurer can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether you took reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation (this depends on all of the relevant circumstances);
- what the insurer would have done if the duty had been met – for example, whether they would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms;
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before the insurer exercises any of these remedies, they will explain their reasons, how to respond and provide further information, including what you can do if you disagree.

Please provide:

- a letter or certificate of currency issued within the last 30 days from your previous super fund or Life Insurance provider detailing your current insurance cover, and
- details of any loadings, exclusions and restrictions applicable to that cover.

YES NO I confirm that these documents show details of my existing cover, including Waiting and Benefit Periods for Income Protection cover (if applicable) and any loadings or exclusions. I confirm that my cover remains valid at the date of this application.

4 Death and/or Total & Permanent Disability cover

I want to transfer my existing level of cover, in addition to the current cover I have, to Australian Retirement Trust as follows:

Death cover $ Total & Permanent Disability cover $ Your transferring cover will be fixed cover (your cover stays the same and your premiums will generally increase on each birthday).

I want to transfer a lower amount of my existing level of cover, in addition to the current cover I have, to Australian Retirement Trust as follows:

Death cover $ Total & Permanent Disability cover $

Note: Transferred cover is provided as Tailored cover. When Tailored Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover is approved, any existing Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover / premium you have may change based on your occupational classification. Once you reach age 61, your Tailored Total & Permanent Disability cover reduces annually by 10% of your insured benefit at age 60, until your 67th birthday when cover ceases. Your premiums are adjusted accordingly.

I understand that any transferred Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Australian Retirement Trust insurance policy (including definition of Total and Permanent Disablement), and subject to a maximum dollar value of $1,000,000 for Death cover and $1,000,000 for Total & Permanent Disability cover. Transferred cover is in addition to any existing cover.

5 Income Protection cover

Income Protection cover $ monthly benefit Benefit Period days Waiting Period days

I do NOT want to have my Income Protection cover indexed on 1 July each year

Note: Transferred cover is provided as Tailored cover. When Tailored Income Protection cover is approved, any existing Income Protection cover / premium you have may change based on your occupational classification.

I understand that any transferred Income Protection cover will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Australian Retirement Trust insurance policy (including definition of Totally Disabled). A $10,000 maximum monthly benefit limit applies (subject to 85% of your salary). Where the Waiting Period offered under my previous fund / policy is different to the available Waiting Periods under the Australian Retirement Trust Insurance policy, my Waiting Period will be rounded up to the next longest Waiting Period. Where the Benefit Period offered is different to the available Benefit Period under the Australian Retirement Trust insurance policy, my Benefit Period will be limited to the next shortest Benefit Period available.

Important

You should not cancel your existing cover until you have received confirmation that your transfer request has been accepted by Australian Retirement Trust.

Your application for transfer of cover will be assessed by our insurer and we will notify you of the outcome. Our insurer may need to contact your previous fund or the insurer of your previous policy in completing its assessment of your application.

If your application to transfer existing Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover is accepted, you will be allocated additional Australian Retirement Trust Tailored cover (up to a maximum dollar value of $1,000,000 for this transfer) to replace your Death and Total & Permanent Disability cover under your previous fund or previous policy. This transferred cover will be fixed cover unless you specify otherwise. Any existing automatic Death and Total & Permanent Disability Assist cover you have at the time your transfer application is accepted (and any existing additional Tailored cover) will continue as Tailored cover.

IMPORTANT: If you are accepted for transferred cover prior to the receipt of your first SG contribution, you will not be eligible for automatic cover where your first SG contribution is received more than 120 days after you joined your employer.

Premiums may vary. If your application to transfer existing underwritten Income Protection insurance is accepted, you will be allocated Tailored Income Protection cover (up to a maximum of $10,000 monthly benefit and 85% of your salary). Any existing Income Protection cover may continue, subject to maximum limits. We will advise you of the Waiting Period available to you (30, 60, 90 or 180 days), upon acceptance of your application.

If you have applied for additional cover through Australian Retirement Trust and been declined or been eligible for a Total & Permanent Disability Assist claim, this Transfer of Insurance Cover application will not be accepted. The cost of approved transferred cover will be based on the applicable premium rates and will reflect your occupational category and any premium loadings or exclusions that may have applied to your previous cover.

If you are intending to replace any existing cover that you hold as part of making this application, you should not cancel your existing cover until we have confirmed that we have accepted your application. If we don't accept this application, it could mean you have no cover.

The general risks of replacing life insurance cover may include but are not limited to:

- implications of any errors or omissions in your new application
- your existing policy containing differing terms, conditions, features and/or benefits to a new policy (e.g. waiting periods and qualifying periods restarting).

This information is general only and you should seek financial advice about the risks of replacing your policy to receive information that is specific to your circumstances.
