

How to transfer to a KiwiSaver scheme

Please note

If you ceased work due to sickness or injury, call us on +61 7 3516 1009 before proceeding.

Am I eligible to make a claim?

You can transfer your Australian superannuation account to a New Zealand KiwiSaver scheme if you've permanently immigrated to New Zealand.

STEP 1

Complete the attached form

The following describes important things to remember when completing each section of the form:

1 Your details

Ensure you include your residential address. Legislation states we may not be able to process your claim without it (a PO Box is not a residential address).

2 Claiming a tax deduction

Carefully consider if you want to claim a tax deduction before sending us this form.

3 Transfer details

Make sure the details of your KiwiSaver account are correct to avoid any possible delays.

4,5 Checklist and authorisation

Use the checklist to double check everything is complete. Then read the statements and sign.

Please note: We're unable to process your transfer unless we have all certified documents.

STEP 2

Obtain supporting documents

Before you can apply you will need to obtain supporting documents. Please refer to page 2 of this important information sheet.

STEP 2

Providing eligibility documents

You will need to provide the following certified documents to us with your completed form:

- certified proof of residence at an address in New Zealand, and
- certified proof of your identity, and
- evidence of your open KiwiSaver scheme account including the account number, and
- written confirmation such as a letter of compliance from your KiwiSaver scheme that they will accept the International Money Transfer (IMT) including their IMT bank details, and
- the completed and certified Australian Statutory declaration included on page 4 of this form.

Providing proof of residence

The below documents can be provided as proof of your residence and must contain your New Zealand address.

- Documents from the Australian Government
- Documents from the New Zealand Government
- Utilities provider
- Vehicle registration
- Current tenancy agreement
- Bank document showing members name, address on bank letter head
- NZ financial Benefit statement
- A current driver's licence showing your residential address.

What is an acceptable identification document?

To verify your identity please attach a certified copy of:

- A. Your current driver's licence, current passport or current national identity card that contains your photo, name and EITHER residential address OR date of birth (please copy and certify both front and back sections if relevant), OR
- B. Your birth certificate, birth extract or Citizenship certificate AND a current rates, electricity or gas notice (no more than three months old) or assessment from the Australian Taxation Office (no more than 12 months old) or an Australian financial benefits notice (no more than 12 months old) showing your name and current residential address.

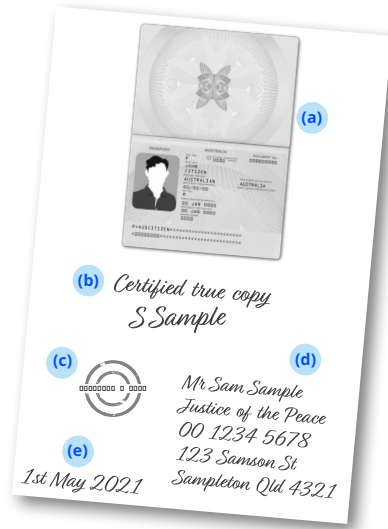

What do we mean by certified?

We understand you'll want to provide us with copies of your ID documents, rather than the originals. That's fine, but you must have them 'certified'. This means the certifier must:

1. Sight the original and the copy to make sure both documents are identical, and
2. Write or stamp 'certified true copy of original document' on each page, and
3. Sign and print their name, qualification (e.g. Justice of the Peace, Australia Post permanent employee), and the date on each page of the document.

How your proof of identity document should look. (See example above.)

- a) Copy of the document that identifies you
- b) 'Certified true copy' written or stamped and signature of authorised person
- c) Authorised person's stamp and registration number (if applicable)

- d) Name, qualification and phone number of authorised person, and
- e) Date of authorisation

Who can certify my identity documents?

- Australian consular officer
- Australian diplomatic officer
- Police officer of an overseas force
- Notary Public
- Judge of a court or magistrate in an overseas jurisdiction
- Justice of the Peace (JP)
- Registrar or deputy registrar of a court
- Commissioner Of Oaths

For further information on who can certify in New Zealand, please visit art.com.au/kiwi-saver or go to Immigration New Zealand's website at dol.govt.nz

Who can witness my Statutory declaration on page 4?

- Justice of the Peace (you can find a list in the New Zealand Yellow Pages)
- Commissioner of Declarations or Commissioner of Oaths in Australia
- Notary Public in New Zealand or Australia
- Judge of a court or magistrate in an overseas jurisdiction
- An enrolled barrister and solicitor of a High Court in New Zealand
- Police officer in New Zealand
- Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer

Important notes on identification:

- We reserve the right to request additional information to verify your identity before paying your claim.
- We can't accept documents which have expired. If an expired document is received, we'll not be able to process your claim until suitable identification has been provided.
- If you're providing a document that is not in English, you'll also need to provide an English translation prepared by an accredited translator. For further information on this, please call us on +61 7 3516 1009.
- If signing on behalf of the member, certified copies of Guardianship papers or proof of Power of Attorney are required.

Currency of transfer

When transferring your benefit to your KiwiSaver account, the payment will be made by International Money Transfer (IMT) in Australian dollars. You will need to check with your KiwiSaver provider if you will incur any fees associated with currency conversion.

Do you have insurance cover with your account?

It's important to check if you have insurance cover with your Australian Retirement Trust account before you complete this form.

Once your account is transferred, all insurance cover is cancelled.

For more information about when insurance cover stops for Super Savings Accumulation Account refer to your Super Savings Insurance Guide.

Other information

Once the balance has been transferred to your KiwiSaver scheme, it is generally subject to New Zealand's retirement savings rules. However, there are some specific rules that apply to money transferred from an Australian super fund. For example, Australian-sourced savings held in KiwiSaver schemes:

- cannot be used to purchase your first home
- cannot be moved to a third country
- can generally be accessed when you reach 60 years of age and satisfy the Australian definition of retirement at that age.

It's also important to consider any tax consequences when transferring to a KiwiSaver scheme.
